

Laughing Frog Farm Sheepdog Trial

Sunday, August 20, 2017

Laughing Frog Farm, Kansasville, WI

Judge: Jennifer Boznos

The courses will be set up to test the practical farm skills of dogs and handlers. There will be gathering, wearing, and penning for both classes and Ranch class requires a short drive. Novice class will have stock set to a feed pan (no spotter.) Ranch will have a light hold on the sheep. Open to all herding breeds.

Each dog may be entered in TWO compete runs and up to 1 additional non-compete run. Non-compete runs in both classes after the compete runs are finished. Only Compete runs count towards ribbons and prizes. Awards for 1st through 3rd places. All placements for compete runs will be submitted to WWSDA to count towards year-end club awards. New this year High Combined Award for each compete class for the two days of competition: Counting Ewe Farm and Laughing Frog Farm trials.

Compete: $35 each TWO compete runs offered. One in the morning and one after lunch. Non-

Compete: $30 (1 non-compete run offered.) No camping on the farm.

We will have a pot-luck lunch so bring a dish to share.

Compete eligibility. Novice Class: No handlers who have competed in Open. No dogs that have competed in a driving class. Ranch Class: No Open handlers or dogs that have competed in cross-drive class. (Class restrictions refer to USBHCA style trials.) Non-Compete classes: Other than no Open handlers, there are no restrictions in non-compete classes. Entries will be limited based on availability of sheep.
