

Honoring My Teachers

Individuals who have passed, but made a big impact in my life (reminder, these don't need to be humans)

What did they teach you or how did they influence your life?

What will I do differently based on that influence in my life?

